1. The following is a translation of a letter from Emil CHURI, Arab Higher Committee chief in Beirut, to the Grand Mufti in Cairo of 1948:

"19 July 1950

"No. HAA/1/773

"His Grace the Chairman of the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine, Cairo:

"Greetings, Respect, and Loyalty.

"We have learned of the following incidents from inside Palestine:

"In the Jewish-occupied area:

"a. Last week unknown persons burnt 2500 donams of Arab land which the Jews had sown with grain in Galilee. The Jews took severe measures against the inhabitants but they were unable to arrest any one. They decided to tighten the regulations preventing movements between one village and another except by permission of the military authorities. Seventeen Arab youths entered Lebanon because of their fear of Jewish ill-treatment.

"b. Last week the Arab Communists held a demonstration in Nazareth against the Government. They demanded the cessation and abolition of racial discrimination which is being practiced by the Jewish authorities. The Jewish Army intervened to disperse the demonstrators and opened fire on the demonstrators. The demonstrators replied with fire and many casualties were suffered on both sides.

"(4). Municipal elections were held in Daliyat al-Karmil; ^a The Communists won ~~the~~ the elections. The Jewish news-papers commented on that result and wondered how the Arab Communists could win despite the influence of Archbishop HAKIM (P.M. ~~Archbishop~~) George ~~HAKIM~~: See RLB-2469, 1400, 2600 and the Arab notables of Haifa.

"(5). ^b Muhammad Nimir al-HAWARI is working as a lawyer in Nazareth, but his work is slow because of ~~Communist~~ resistance against him. (P.M. See RLB-1850). An assault was made on ~~July 1950~~ on his life and his office, but it failed because of the intervention of the Jewish police. The Jewish authorities prevented him from visiting Jaffa and recovering his house, which he bought there before the occupation.

In the Jordan-occupied area:

- "(1). ^a Sa'id Khalid Sharif ~~al-~~HUSAYNI has been appointed a director of the United Nations Relief Agency at a monthly salary of one hundred guineas. Sa'id Jamal ~~al-~~HUSAYNI mediated for this appointment.
- "(2). ^b Musa ~~al-~~ALAMI (P.M. See RLB-2700) has sent a recommendation to the United Nations for the employment of Musa 'Abdullah ~~al-~~HUSAYNI and Nizmi ~~al-~~ANBATAWI with the Relief Agency.
- "(3). ^c Telephone lines were destroyed along a stretch of 600 meters in the Nablus area. The police arrested a number of villagers.
- "(4). ^d Last week a powerful bomb was thrown at the police station at Jenin, which is also used by the Jordan military command. Many shots were fired at the station immediately following the explosions.
- "(5). ^e On the following day a hand grenade was thrown at a coffee shop belonging to a person called Ibrahim 'ABD-AL-HADI in Jenin, which is frequented by a number of Jordan army officers who support the Hashimite policy; some of them were injured.
